ECF CASE

07 Civ. 11375 (PAC)

AFFIRMATION OF KIRK M. LYONS IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO VACATE ATTACHMENT

KIRK M. LYONS, an attorney duly admitted to practice law before this Court, affirms the following under the penalties of perjury under 28 USC § 1746:

1. I am an attorney at law and member of the firm of Lyons & Flood, LLP, attorneys for the defendant PROGRESS BULK CARRIERS, LTD. ("PBC"). This Affirmation is based on facts and information known to me personally, as well as documents and information provided to me by PBC and its representatives and agents, all of which I believe to be true and accurate. This Affirmation is respectfully submitted in support of defendant PBC's motion to vacate the attachment.
2. Plaintiff, Far Eastern Shipping Co. ("FESCO"), commenced this action on December 19, 2007, claiming damages against PBC based on PBC's October 22, 2002, time charter of the M/V CHERKASSY (the "Vessel") from FESCO. (See plaintiff's Verified Complaint annexed hereto as Exhibit A).

3. FESCO also sought and obtained an Ex Parte Order for issuance of process of maritime attachment and garnishment ("Attachment Order"). The Court issued the Attachment Order and process of maritime attachment and garnishment ("PMAG") on December 21, 2007, in the sum of $909,153.86. (See Attachment Order and PMAG annexed hereto as Exhibit C).

4. FESCO's counsel submitted an Affidavit in support of FESCO's application for an Ex Parte Order claiming that at the time the Verified Complaint was filed PBC could not be found within the Southern District of New York (the "District"). (See the Affidavit of Gerald Weathers dated December 18, 2007 ("Weathers Affidavit"), annexed hereto as Exhibit B).

5. Thereafter, FESCO proceeded to serve the PMAG on various garnishee banks within the Southern District of New York. On December 24, 2007, an electronic funds transfer in the amount of $509,324.21 being sent for the benefit of PBC, was attached at Deutsche Bank.

6. PBC now files this motion to vacate plaintiff's Rule B attachment on the grounds that plaintiff has not met all of the requirements for obtaining the Attachment Order in that PBC was "present" within the District, thus precluding Rule B maritime attachment as a pre-judgment remedy available to the plaintiff. Alternatively, PBC was subject to an in personam lawsuit in the Eastern District of New York, and thus falls within the "across the river" exception set forth by the Second Circuit in Aqua Stoli Shipping Ltd. v. Gardner Smith Pty Ltd., 460 F.3d 434 (2nd Cir. 2006).

7. Counsel for FESCO states in the Weathers Affidavit that he performed an investigation into whether PBC could be “found” within the District – whether PBC had an agent for service of process and was jurisdictionally present in the District. (See Exhibit B at ¶ 2).

8. In performing this investigation, counsel for FESCO learned that PBC maintained a telephone number in is this District under the care of American Corporate Technical Services, Inc. (“ACTS”) to wit: (914) 478-1469. (See Exhibit B at ¶¶ 2(b)(c) and (d)).

9. Counsel for FESCO conceded that this telephone number ((914) 478-1469) was listed for PBC by Verizon Nationwide 411 as well as the 2007 Edition of the Journal of Commerce’s Transportation Telephone Tickler. (See Exhibit B at ¶¶ 2(b) and (d)).

10. Plaintiff’s counsel also went so far as to call PBC’s telephone number ((914) 478-1469) and after hearing “ACTS,” he apparently hung the telephone up. (See Exhibit B at ¶¶ 2(b) - (d)). However, even though he knew there was a connection between defendant and ACTS (see the Weathers’ Affidavit which makes reference to “the apparent relationship between Defendant and American Corporate Technical Services, Inc.,” Exhibit B at ¶ 2(e)), plaintiff’s counsel did not ask the logical question when he called that telephone number. The logical question is and was – what was the connection between ACTS and defendant.

11. If counsel for FESCO had asked that simple question when calling (914) 478-1469, he would have been advised that ACTS is the agent for service of process for defendant and ACTS has an address in this District. On January 23, 2008, I made the same telephone call and was advised that ACTS is the agent for service of process for defendant and ACTS has an address in this District.

12. However, counsel for FESCO failed to discover (or failed to mention in the Weathers Affidavit) that in addition to the telephone number, PBC also had an address listed in the District, namely 25 Main Street, Hastings-on-Hudson, NY 10706. This information was readily ascertainable by an electronic search of any of a number of telephone and business directories. (A representative example of the results found when searching for "Progress Bulk" and "NY" is annexed hereto as Exhibit D).

13. Moreover, although PBC was not licensed, registered, or authorized to conduct business in New York, PBC had appointed ACTS as its agent for the service of process in New York by the filing of a Form U-2 (Uniform Consent to Service of Process) with the State of New York, Office of the Attorney General. This confirms that ACTS has an address at 25 Main Street, Hastings-on-Hudson, New York, which is within this District. (See Exhibit E annexed hereto).

14. Indeed, other plaintiffs in the District have served process upon PBC via ACTS. Specifically, on October 15, 2007, Peter D. Wolf, President of ACTS accepted service of process on behalf of PBC in connection with the lawsuit bearing the caption Dicalite Armenia, Inc. v. Progress Bulk Carriers, Ltd., 07 Civ. 8660 (WHP), USDC, SDNY. (See Affidavit of Service, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit F).

15. It also appears that counsel for FESCO's belief that ACTS was an agent of PBC, led counsel for FESCO to then check with the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations to learn the corporate status of ACTS and determine whether ACTS was present within the District. (See Exhibit B at ¶ 2(e)).

16. ACTS had been registered as a New York domestic business corporation since February 19, 1999, but the registration had become inactive. However, the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations search would still have provided counsel for FESCO with notice that the address on record for service of process on ACTS was "C/O PETER D. WOLF, 36 MAIN ST., 2ND FL., HASTINGS-ON-HUDSON, NEW YORK, 10706." (See NYS Department of State, Division of Corporations print-out dated January 22, 2008, annexed hereto as Exhibit G).

17. Upon determining that ACTS was not actively licensed, authorized, or registered to do business in New York, counsel for FESCO continued his investigation to determine the jurisdictional presence of PBC in the District. Counsel for FESCO's search for the jurisdictional presence of PBC in the District revealed a website referring to Med Brokerage and Management, Corp. ("MED") as being "managing agents for progress bulk carriers." (See Exhibit B at ¶ 2(g)).

18. Counsel for FESCO was thus aware that MED was PBC's managing agent. However, despite this knowledge, it appears that counsel for FESCO did not perform any additional investigation into MED's status or relationship with PBC.

19. If counsel for FESCO had checked with the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations to further investigate MED and determine its corporate status, counsel for FESCO would have learned that MED was a New York domestic business corporation, actively licensed, authorized, and registered to do business in New York. Moreover, counsel for FESCO would have learned that one of MED's listed locations was in the Southern District of New York. (See Exhibit A to the Mazman Decl.).

20. Counsel for FESCO's failure to perform a further investigation into MED is baffling in light of counsel for FESCO's admission that the reference to MED on the website was "the only indication that Defendant conducts any activities in New York...." (See Exhibit B at ¶ 2(g)).

21. Having discovered an "indication" that PBC conducted activities in New York, counsel for FESCO nevertheless appears to have terminated his investigation as to the nature of those activities, resting on the belief that even if MED were PBC's "agent in the legal, rather than commercial sense, merely having an agent amenable to service of process does not render one 'found' within the court's jurisdiction." (See Exhibit B at ¶ 2(g)).

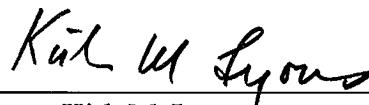

22. Counsel for FESCO appears to have neglected to consider whether the presence of an agent in the "commercial" sense might render a defendant found within the District. The readily discoverable truth was that MED was indeed the managing agent of PBC and that MED had an office in Manhattan as well as Long Island. (See Mazman Decl. at ¶¶ 2 and 3).

23. It is clear that PBC was present within the District at the time plaintiff filed the Verified Complaint. PBC was jurisdictionally present by virtue of its managing agent MED's presence in the District and continuous and systematic contacts with the District. PBC was amenable to service of process within the District because plaintiff could have served process upon PBC either via its agent for service of process ACTS (who had an office in the District) or via its managing agent MED (who also maintained an office in the District).

24. As seen above, PBC's presence within the District was readily discoverable by the exercise of due diligence.

The foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge under the penalty of perjury.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, FAR EASTERN SHIPPING CO., by its Attorneys, Law Offices of Simon Harter, Esq., as and for its Verified Complaint against the named Defendant, PROGRESS BULK CARRIERS, LTD., alleges upon information and belief as follows:

1. This is an admiralty and maritime claim within the meaning of Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in that it involves claims for breach of a maritime contract of charter party. This case also falls under this Court's admiralty and maritime jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1333, and this Court's federal question jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331. Finally, this Court also has jurisdiction over this matter because the action also arises under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., and the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards, 9 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.

2. At all times relevant hereto, Plaintiff was and still is a foreign business entity organized and existing under the laws of Russia with a registered office at No. 15, Aleutskaya Avenue, Vladivostok, Russia.

3. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant was and still is a foreign business entity organized and existing under the laws of the Bahamas with a registered office at Montague Sterling Centre, 3rd Floor, East Bay Street, Nassau, Bahamas.

4. On or about October 22, 2002, Plaintiff, in the capacity of Owner, entered into a maritime contract of charter party, written on an amended New York Produce Exchange form, with Defendant, under which Plaintiff agreed to let and Defendant agreed to charter the Motor Vessel CHERKASSY for a period of time commencing between October 25 and November 10, 2002 and extending to a period of eight and one-half months. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the charter party, Defendant was obligated to pay Plaintiff the sum of US $4,550.00 per day pro rata, including overtime, for the first fifty days and US $5,050.00 per day pro rata, including overtime, for the balance of time, in hire for the charter of the aforementioned Vessel.

5. A copy of the contract and its additional clauses is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated by reference herein.

6. Plaintiff delivered to Defendant the aforementioned Vessel under the terms of the contract which was conforming in all respects to the conditions specified in the charter.

7. Pursuant to the charter party, Defendant ordered the Vessel to proceed to Matanzas, Venezuela and to commence the loading of various steel products, which were to be discharged at various ports in China.

8. The Vessel arrived at Matanzas on May 22, 2003, and loading commenced the following day.

9. A portion of the steel being loaded, consisted of 551 coils of rolled steel sheets, was completed on May 30, 2003. A Bill of Lading was issued bearing that date and was signed by the Master of the Vessel, naming Siderurgica Del Orinoco (Sidor) C.A. as the shipper and Changshu, China as the port of discharge.

10. The remaining cargo was loaded and the Vessel sailed for China on June 6, 2003, arriving at Changshu on July 27, 2003.

11. Upon the Vessel's arrival, she was met by the receivers and holders of the Bill of Lading, Minmetals Steel Co. Ltd.

12. Minmetals had purchased the 551 coils of steel from Duferco S.A. Pursuant to the terms of the contract between Minmetals and Duferco, the cargo was to be shipped no later than May 30, 2003 or else Minmetals was entitled to reject the cargo.

13. Minmetals contended that the loading of the 551 coils had not been completed by May 30, 2003 and that the Bill of Lading had been fraudulently back-dated.

14. On October 26, 2003, Minmetals commenced legal proceedings in the Wuhan Maritime Court against Plaintiff herein, claiming that it had lost its right to reject the steel and accordingly suffered loss and damages.

15. Plaintiff denied the allegations asserted against it and, at substantial costs, defended the Wuhan Maritime Court proceedings.

16. The Wuhan Maritime Court rendered its decision on July 30, 2004, and held Plaintiff liable to Minmetals for the sum of US $446,601.56, plus interest and costs. A copy of the court's ruling is attached hereto as Exhibit "B" and incorporated by reference herein.

17. Plaintiff is currently appealing the judgment issued by the Wuhan Maritime Court.

18. Clause 8 of the charter party between Plaintiff and Defendant, inter alia, subjects the Captain of the Vessel to the orders and directions of the Defendant. Moreover, pursuant to Clause 8, the Captain is also charged with signing bills of lading.

19. The Captain, complying with Defendant's orders and direction, signed and issued the Bill of Lading that is the subject of the instant suit.

20. Defendant, having caused the Bill of Lading to be issued, is obligated to indemnify Plaintiff against all loss suffered in defending the resulting litigation, as well as all costs and fees resulting from any and all subsequent proceedings.

21. Moreover, Rider Clause 48 provides that any disputes arising thereunder shall be submitted to arbitration in London, England and according to English law.

22. Plaintiff has initiated arbitration proceedings in London against Defendant and specifically reserves the right to continue to arbitrate the substantive matters in dispute pursuant to the aforementioned arbitration provision.

23. Plaintiff has submitted a claim against Defendant in the London arbitration for indemnity, consisting of the following items of damages, fees and costs incurred in connection the legal proceedings brought by Minmetals against Plaintiff in China, together with interest on all such amounts as recoverable in London arbitratoin:

A.	Principal amount of Wuhan Maritime Court judgment	US $446,601.56
B.	Interest to date on the Wuhan Maritime Court judgment	US $106,666.32
C.	Court fees assessed by Wuhan Maritime Court	US $5,417.74

D.	Plaintiff's legal fees and costs in defending Wuhan Maritime Court action	US$204,861.00
E.	Court fees assessed by Appeal Court	US$5,596.12
F.	Plaintiff's anticipated legal fees in Appeal Court proceeding and in possible retrial	US$49,000.00
		<hr/>
		US$818,142.74

24. In addition to an attachment for the full amount of Plaintiff's indemnity claim, Plaintiff seeks an attachment over an additional sum to cover its current and anticipated legal fees and costs in the London arbitration as, and to the extent, recoverable under English Law.

25. Plaintiff's legal fees and costs to date are approximately $40,000.00. Plaintiff estimates its further legal fees and costs for the remainder of the London arbitration at approximately another $40,000.00. Plaintiff estimates that it will take approximately two years to conclude the London arbitration. Therefore, Plaintiff seeks an attachment of its total anticipated legal fees and costs of $80,000.00, plus interest thereon of $11,011.12 (two years at 6.5% compounded quarterly), for a total of $91,011.12.

26. Based upon the foregoing, the sum total sought to be attached in this action is US $909,153.86, consisting of $818,142.74 in connection with the Chinese legal proceedings and $91,011.12 in connection with the London arbitration proceedings.

27. Upon information and belief, and after investigation, Defendant cannot be "found" within this District for the purpose of Rule B of the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims, but Plaintiff avers, on information and belief, that Defendant has, or will have during the pendency of this action, assets within this District comprising, inter alia, cash, funds, wire transfers, electronic funds transfers, accounts, letters of credit, freights, sub-freights, charter hire and/or sub-charter hire, or any other tangible or intangible property, of, belonging to, due, claimed by or being held by or for the benefit of Defendant (hereinafter “assets”), located at, moving through, or held by, any garnishee(s) located within this District, including but not limited to HSBC (USA) Bank; Bank of America N.A.; The Bank of New York; Citibank N.A.; JPMorganChase Bank; Standard Chartered Bank; Wachovia Bank N.A.; Deutsche Bank AG; Barclays Bank PLC; UBS A.G.; Credit Suisse; Nordea Bank Finland PLC; Fortis Financial Services LLC; ABN-AMRO Bank N.V.; American Express Bank Ltd; Bank of China, and/or others.

28. Plaintiff, for its part, has satisfied all of its obligations under the terms of the charter party.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, FAR EASTERN SHIPPING CO., prays:

- a. That process in due form of law according to the practice of this Court may issue against Defendant, PROGRESS BULK CARRIERS, LTD., citing it to appear and answer the foregoing, and failing such appearance and answer, to have judgment by default against the Defendant in the principal amount of the claim, plus interest, costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees;
- b. That if Defendant cannot be found within this District pursuant to Supplemental Rule B, that all assets of Defendant up to and including the sum of US $909,153.86 may be restrained and attached, including but not limited to any cash, funds, credits, wire transfers, electronic funds transfers, accounts, letters of credit, freights, sub-freights, charter hire, sub-charter hire, and/or other assets of, belonging to, due, or for the benefit of, Defendant, including but not limited to such assets as may be held, received or transferred in their own name or as may be held, received or transferred for its benefit at, moving through, or within the possession, custody or control of banking institutions including but not limited to HSBC (USA) Bank, Bank of America N.A., The Bank of New York, Citibank N.A., JPMorganChase Bank, Standard Chartered Bank, Wachovia Bank N.A., Deutsche Bank AG, Barclays Bank PLC; UBS A.G.; Credit Suisse; Nordea Bank Finland PLC; Fortis Financial Services LLC; ABN-AMRO Bank N.V.; American Express Bank Ltd; Bank of China and/or any other garnishees(s) upon whom a copy of the Process of Maritime Attachment and Garnishment issued in this action may be served;
- c. That this Court retain jurisdiction over the matter for any further or supplemental proceedings as may be necessary in order to give effect to the London arbitration; and

- d. For such other, further and different relief as this Court may deem just and proper in the circumstances.

AFFIDAVIT PURSUANT TO SUPPLEMENTAL RULE B(1)(b)

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK)

GERALD WEATHERS, having been duly sworn, deposes and states the following under oath:

1. I am an associate in the Law Offices of Simon Harter, Esq. I am familiar with the facts of this case and make this Affidavit pursuant to Rule B of the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. In this Affidavit, I present the results of our investigation of whether Defendant is “found” within this Judicial District within the meaning of Rule B. I also present a description of the particular proceedings and claims which underlie Plaintiff’s request for security via attachment pursuant to Rule B.

“FOUND” INVESTIGATION

2. Deponent has made an investigation and deponent believes that based upon the results of said investigation, Defendant, PROGRESS BULK CARRIERS, LTD., is a corporation or other business entity which cannot be "found" within this District for the purpose of an attachment under Rule B. Deponent's investigation has consisted of the following:

(a) Deponent contacted the office of the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations, on November 26, 2007, via the official Department of State website at <http://www.dos.state.ny.us> and conducted a search for the Defendant. The search result indicated that Defendant is not a New York corporation, nor is it licensed, authorized or registered to do business in the State of New York as either a domestic or international corporation;

(b) Deponent consulted Directory Assistance for New York on November 26, 2007 via Verizon Nationwide 411 and was given the number 914-478-1469 when inquiry was made for the Defendant;

(c) Deponent called 914-478-1469 on November 26, 2007 and, without any prompting by Deponent, the call was answered, "ACTS";

(d) Deponent consulted the current 2007 Edition of The Journal of Commerce's Transportation Telephone Tickler (Vol. 1: New York Metropolitan Area) on November 26, 2007 and Defendant was listed; however, Defendant's listing was "in care of" ACTS (American Corporate Technical Services, Inc.);

(e) Given the apparent relationship between Defendant and American Corporate Technical Services, Inc., deponent contacted the office of the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations, on November 26, 2007, via the official Department of State website at <http://www.dos.state.ny.us> and conducted a search for American Corporate Technical Services Inc. The search result indicated that American Corporate Technical Services Inc. is not an active New York corporation, nor is it licensed, authorized or registered to do business in the State of New York as either a domestic or international corporation;

(f) Deponent also consulted the current 2007 Edition of The Journal of Commerce's Transportation Telephone Tickler (Vol. 1: New York Metropolitan Area) on November 26, 2007 and there was no listing for American Corporate Technical Services, Inc.;

(g) Deponent accessed Internet search engine <http://www.ask.com> on November 26, 2007, and the only indication that Defendant conducts any activities in New York is a link which directed Deponent to <http://www.strategicdataworks.co.uk/MedBrokerage.html>. The only reference to Defendant at the indicated website states that: "[e]stablished in 1995 and based in Long Island, New York, Med Brokerage are managing agents for progress bulk carriers based in the Bahamas."

Even assuming, arguendo, that Med Brokerage is Defendant's agent in the legal, rather than commercial sense, merely having an agent amenable to service of process does not render one “found” within the court’s jurisdiction. Integrated Container Service, Inc. v. Starlines Container Shipping, Ltd., 476 F.Supp.119 (S.D.N.Y. 1979), which, for the purposes of interpreting “found”, was relied upon in the Second Circuit’s most recent interpretation of maritime attachments. See, Agua Stoli Shipping Ltd. v. Gardner Smith Pty Ltd., 460 F.3d 434, 445 (2d Cir. 2006). Integrated held that:

A maritime attachment is precluded under Admiralty Rule B(1) only if the defendants have engaged in sufficient activity in the district or the cause of action has sufficient contacts with the district to permit the court to exercise In personam jurisdiction over the defendants (hereafter referred to as presence in the jurisdictional sense), And in addition can be found within the geographical confines of the district for service of process. Thus the attachment will lie unless the defendant is present in the district in both senses.

Id. at 122, internal citations omitted. Moreover, in explaining the rule, the court declared that “the fact that a defendant can be subjected to the court’s In personam jurisdiction by virtue of the presence of a resident agent for service of process will not suffice to defeat the attachment if the defendant is not otherwise present in the district in the jurisdictional sense....” Id.

3. Based upon the foregoing, your deponent submits that Defendant, PROGRESS BULK CARRIERS, LTD., cannot be “found” within this District for the purpose of an attachment pursuant to Rule B and seeks an Order of Attachment against such tangible and intangible property of Defendant as may be found within this District up to and including the amount of the claim as specified in the Verified Complaint.

CLAIMS FOR WHICH ATTACHMENT IS SOUGHT

4. As indicated more fully in Plaintiff’s Verified Complaint, the primary nature of Plaintiff’s claims against Defendant is for an indemnity in connection with any liability Plaintiff may incur in a legal proceeding commenced in China by Minmetals Steel Co. Ltd. Minmetals, as the receiver of a cargo of coils of rolled steel sheets, commenced legal proceedings against Plaintiff, asserting various claims in connection with a bill of lading issued by Plaintiff at the instruction of Defendant. The Wuhan Maritime Court rendered a judgment against Plaintiff in July 2004 in the amount of $446,601.56 plus interest and costs. Plaintiff has appealed from that judgment and the appeal is ongoing.

5. As also noted in Plaintiff’s Verified Complaint, Plaintiff has initiated London arbitration proceedings against Defendant on the basis of an arbitration clause in the charter party contract between the parties. A copy of the charter party is found at Exhibit “A” to Plaintiff’s Verified Complaint.

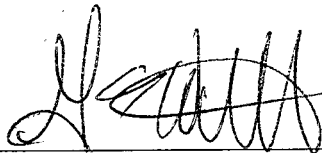

6. Plaintiff has presented a claims submission in the London arbitration outlining the Chinese proceedings and asserting the claims for which security is sought herein. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks full indemnity from Defendant, under English law which governs the charter party, for any liability Plaintiff incurs as a result of following Defendant's instructions, as charterer, with respect to issuance of the bill of lading at issue in the Chinese proceedings, along with the fees and costs incurred by Plaintiff in defending the initial action brought by Minmetals and in bringing the present appeal. In addition, Plaintiff seeks the legal fees and costs it has incurred, and anticipates incurring, in connection with the London arbitration, which are recoverable under English law, along with interest on the various claims as appropriate.

7. It is possible that the Chinese action may be resolved, either on the basis of a favorable decision by the Appeals Court or by an amicable settlement between the parties, for an amount which is less than the judgment and accrued interest and which may ultimately result in Plaintiff incurring less fees and costs than are presently anticipated in connection with the proceedings in China. Similarly, it is possible that the London proceedings may be resolved on the basis of the outcome of the Chinese proceedings or by amicable resolution, in which case Plaintiff may not ultimately incur the full amount of fees and costs estimated herein. Since, however, the eventual outcome is not known at this time, Plaintiff seeks security in the full amount of the reasonably anticipated liability, fees and costs it may incur.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.
